

A DOZEN FAMILIES CURED OF ITCH BY CUTICURA

Shown No Marks but Whole Body
Itched Like a Million Mosquito
Bites—Sleep Out of the Question and Life Became an Inferno.

DOCTORS AND DRUGGIST TREATED THEM IN VAIN

"The Cuticura Remedies are the best in the world, as I know from experience. In Downsville, South Wales, about fifteen years ago, families were stricken with a disease known as the itch. Believe me, it is the most terrible disease of its kind that I know of, as it itches all through your body and makes your life an inferno. Sleep is out of the question and you feel as if a million mosquitoes were attacking you at the same time. Yet you could see nothing on the skin. But the itch was there all right and I sincerely trust that I shall never get it. I knew a dozen families that were so affected. The male members and myself belonged to the same society and, as steward, it was my duty to visit the sick members once a week for sick benefit until they were declared off. That is how I became so familiar with the itch.

"The doctors did their best but their remedies were of no avail whatever. Then the families tried a druggist who was noted far and wide for his remarkable cures. People came to him from all parts of the country for treatment but his medicine made matters still worse, as a last resort they were advised by a friend to use the Cuticura Remedies. I am glad to tell you that after a few days' treatment with Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent, the effect was wonderful and the result was a perfect cure in all cases.

"I may add that my three brothers, three sisters, myself and all our families have been users of the Cuticura Remedies for fifteen or twenty years. Thomas Hugh, 1650 West Huron St., Chicago, Ill., June 28, 1909."

MAN IS STABBED ABOUT A BILL

Collector Cuts Him After He Had Hit the Collector
With His Fist.

W. C. McDowell, representative of a mining machinery house having offices in the City National Bank building, and T. N. Crenshaw, collector for the Business Men's Protective association, engaged in a fight Tuesday afternoon in a dispute about a $9 bill for goods charged to McDowell. In the encounter, which occurred in the mercantile company's office, McDowell was stabbed and Crenshaw was badly bruised. Both men were arrested.

In police court this morning McDowell did not appear, it having been explained to judge Lea that he was not able to be down to court but a plea of guilty to the charge of fighting was entered and he was fined $5. Crenshaw's case was continued until Thursday morning.

Crenshaw said: "I went in to McDowell's office after he had thrown another collector out, and after arguing with him about the bill. I left. He went downstairs but came back again and entered our office and used language which I did not think proper in front of the women stenographers. I invited him out but instead of going, he hit me a blow in the face. I took out a pocket knife and stabbed him and then a policeman arrived and placed us both under arrest."

McDowell was not seriously hurt, the small blade of the pocket knife having simply cut one of the muscles over the heart. It was sewed up by a physician.

According to policeman Walter Williams McDowell had been drinking and was excited.

AMUSEMENTS

"THE PRINCE OF TONIGHT"

Miss Ruth Peebles, prima donna of "The Prince of Tonight" company, need not appear in the play unless she wants to. She has received an offer to go on a moving picture circuit. The offer came from a rising young manager in Chicago, Miss Peebles and a party of friends were out motoring and were caught in a violent thunder and rain storm. They took refuge in the moving picture theater. Flashes of lightning frightened the operator and he stopped the exhibition. Some of the patrons demanded their money back, but Miss Peebles insisted that the crowd be entertained. She had the two vaudeville turns go on, pressed the popcorn vendor into service and finally went on and sang several songs herself. The manager approached her and told her she ought to be on the stage and said he would give her $25 a week. She laughed and he said: "I think you could make good. I'll give you $30 a week and a contract for two months."

One of Miss Peebles' friends whispered in the manager's ear who she was and he fainted.

Miss Peebles appears here with "The Prince of Tonight," Friday, April 1. Seats are now selling at the Crawford box office.

Spring Tired?

Are You Weary and Run
Down? Are You Sick and
Depressed? Is Your Blood
Thin and Poor?

Do you take cold easily? Do you feel shivery? Utterly fagged out after a little exertion? Is your complexion bad? Do you feel that life is not worth living. Nearly every one has some of these symptoms in spring, for winter, while apparently bracing, is all the time sapping your strength. By spring every one is in a more or less played-out condition just right to catch any disease. Not always sick, but tired, tired, tired. To carry you through the changeable, trying, disease-breeding weather of spring you need

Try This For Catarrh

Get a Hyomel (pronounced High-o-mel) outfit today.

Pour a few drops from the bottle in to the inhaler that comes with each outfit, and breathe it in 4 or 5 times a day.

Immediately you know that Hyomel soothes and heals the inflamed and irritated membranes.

But Hyomel does more than soothe and heal. It kills the germs, those persevering pests, that are at the root of all catarrhal conditions.

"Last year I suffered terribly with catarrh. I used one bottle of Hyomel and then got another, but I did not have to use one-quarter of this second bottle, for my catarrh was better."—Miss Helen McNair, Loyalton, Cal.

A complete Hyomel outfit, including a bottle of Hyomel, a hard rubber pocket inhaler and simple directions for use, costs only $1.00. If you now own a Hyomel inhaler, you can get an extra bottle of Hyomel for only 50 cents at druggists everywhere and at Kelly & Pollard's.

Guaranteed to cure catarrh, croup, coughs, colds and sore throat, or money back.
